

After twelve years of the Modi Government and eighteen months of the Fadnavis 3.0 administration, where does Maharashtra stand politically today?

This report examines voting preferences and their relationship with economic conditions, governance perceptions, welfare benefits, gender, caste, and regional dynamics.

Key questions addressed include:

- * Are beneficiaries more likely to support BJP?
- * Are women voters shifting toward BJP?
- * Which regions favour which political parties?
- * How many voters are committed versus undecided?
- * How do voting preferences vary across Open and OBC communities?
- * What are the approval ratings of the Prime Minister and Chief Minister?

The report also introduces the proprietary JIWAN Index.
